RE: The ASAIHL Online World Congress 2020 (AOWC-2020)

Dear Rectors, Vice-Chancellors and Presidents,

The current situation on the global Coronavirus Disease or the COVID-19 pandemic has caused devastation to humankind, and it is expected that the pandemic would continue for some time, at least towards the end of 2020. Thus, the Association of Southeast Asian Institution of Higher Learning (ASAIHL) Thailand highly concerns on the situation, and would like to seek for more academic collaboration among higher learning institutions by organizing the ASAIHL Online World Congress 2020 on “COVID-19: the Global New Reality” (AOWC-2020) under the theme “COVID-19: the Global New Reality” with the objectives to exchange knowledge, thoughts and academic experiences regarding the establishment of the proactive counter measures in all aspects for the future and to suggest choices of policies for consideration on rapid changes and future development. Within the talks, there are 6 sub-themes including:

- A. Medical & Health
- B. Social Communication & Public Measure
- C. Economy, Business and Services
- D. Education & Life-long Learning
- E. City, Living and Tourism
- F. Technology & Innovation

The AOWC-2020 will be organized on May 28, 2020 starting from 14.00 hrs (GMT+7), Within the event, there will be national and international keynote speakers, and experts who are currently dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic tremendously. Furthermore, as there are many colleagues and friends are interested in the event, thus the Organizing Committee decided to increase the audience capacity of the Zoom Webinar which we highly believe that we can accommodate everyone free of charge. Attached please find the tentative schedule of the AOWC-2020.
